

You've been

BOOED!

The air is cool, the time is near for the Switch
Witches to appear.

But before their big day arrives, we'd like to leave you a little prize.

There are so many kids on our street, who we think deserve a treat!

Your secret friends have left it here,
before you could see us, we disappeared!

You've been BOOED!

Now its your turn to be a sneaky switch.

Place this note and a Halloween treat upon your neighbors step.

Once you've Switched there's one more thing you must not forget.

Hang your sign upon your door so all the kids will know you were a part of the Great Switch
